

Avril Lavigne resume

Avril Lavigne was born in Belleville, is knowed as a singer superstar, Ontario, Canada on September 27, 1984. At 16, Avril Lavigne moved to Manhattan and began work on her debut album. She dropped out of high school after the 11th grade when she secured a record deal. When Avril Lavigne was almost 18, she released "Complicated" from her debut album titled: "Let Go," which went 6x platinum. As a petite skater girl from a small town, Avril Lavigne has shown she is independent, full of confidence and determination, providing a good combination to make "Complicated" and Avril Lavigne a musical breakthrough. "Complicated" went to number #1 on Billboards Top 100 while also earning her 5 Grammy nominations, MTV music awards, MTV European music awards and many more.