

Ou turn a

Across the ocean of the night???? you turn and look into my eyes, burn into my life.???? Now the moment's magical but we keep our silence ??? You could tell me anything you want, you could tell me all your secret wishes; only in our eyes, only in our eyes???? we made the soul kiss???? and we will never pass this way again we will never know each other better; ships pass in the night and in their wake they leave just phosphorescence. ???????? You could tell me any lies you want, it wouldn't change the way I feel about this; only in our eyes, only in our eyes we made the soul kiss and we will never pass this ???way again but we'll always feel each other's presence... ships pass in the night???? and when we wake we're left with phosphorescence
